Can Be No Private Sea Fishing Rights.

SUPREME COURT GIVES DECISION

5:10 Seventy-Five Suits to Establish Walluku Walmanalo. Rights Will Now be Thrown Out.

The fisheries of the Hawaiian Islands became public property by a decision of the Supreme Court on Saturday which wiped out all fishing rights €xcepting those upon private property. Some twenty-five suits to establish fishery rights which were brought against the Territory under the provisions of the Organic Act will now be thrown out of court by reason of the decision, and the fisheries so claimed will escheat to the United States for the use of her citizens. Further condemnation proceedings will be necessary to obtain these fisheries in view of the decision of the Supreme Court in the case of S. M. Damon vs. Territory of Hawali and J. O. Carter et al., Trustees of the Bishop Estate vs. Territory of Hawaii.

The Supreme Court hold that the Hawalian statutes giving konohikis in the sea fisheries were not grants of property but were public statutes in which no one could acquire a vested right and that when repealed by the Organic Act no one had any "private property in such fishery." It is also held that exclusive rights in a sea fishery surrounding these Islands could not be acquired by ancient custom, nor that a Royal Patent could convey a right to the fishery.

The decision is written by Justice Galbraith, who with Judges De Bolt and Robinson heard the case, Frear and had an interest in the fisheries and Mon, 24 11 86 1.2 .... 5 52 5 58 6 17 5 17 1 39 that this was abandoned when it was found that the business was not prof-Times of the tide are taken from the stable to the government. Thereafter the fishing rights were granted to the people and the court holds that there The tides at Kahului and Hilo occur could be no private right through an-

that the fisheries should not be included as an appurtenance to the land or by a royal grant. The opinion coacludes "Under the common law the right of fishing in the open sea like that of navigation was a public right. The grant of an exclusive right to a sea fishery cannot be presumed. Every ambiguity or doubt in the instrument by which the right is claimed to be granted will be construed most strongly against the grantee."

Court Notes.

Divorce matters occupied Judge De Bolt Saturday. In the case of Wilcords wood, 14 pigs, 14 bundles hides, helmina Proper vs. Anton J. Proper the court found sufficient cause for Br. sp. Norma, McLaughlin, 142 days divorce but reserved his decision, pending the ruling of the Supreme Court regarding official publications in the 'Government Gazette."

In the Wong divorce case the order was modified reducing the alimony from Am. bk. Abby Palmer, Johnson, from fifteen dollars to twelve dollars per week. The French divorce case was continued to allow the service of summons

Lin Choy, charged with assault and Nor. bk. Excelsior, Dannell, from battery, was found not guilty by Judge Robinson Saturday. The case was tried without a jury by stipulation, and the court held that the evidence being evenly balanced, he must find for defend-

> Judge Gear made an order allowing George Carter to borrow $252 in order to pay the taxes for Willie Hall, the spendthrift.
